Disability and Sexuality Debrief Questions

- Why do you think the women are asking the guy (Darrell) these questions?
- Is it okay that they are asking him these questions? Why or why not?
- What if someone without a disability wants to date someone with a disability? Is that okay or not? How come?
- What positive messages does this scene teach us about people with disabilities and their relationships? What does it teach us about people with disabilities and sex?
- Does this scene feel familiar or realistic to you? Could this really happen in your life or the life of someone you know with a disability?
